1. INTRODUCTION

This handbook is intended to help you get acquainted with the Company. It explains some of our philosophies and beliefs, and describes, in general terms, some of our employment guidelines. We hope it will serve as a useful reference document throughout your employment at the Company. Also, please understand that the Handbook is not intended to create or to be a contract (express or implied), nor is it intended to otherwise create any legally enforceable obligations on the part of the Company or its employees. This handbook supersedes and replaces all previous personnel policies, practices, and guidelines.

To obtain information regarding specific employment policies or procedures, whether or not they are referred to in this handbook, contact your supervisor or the Company's Human Resources Manager. Because the Company is a growing and changing organization, it reserves full discretion to add to, modify, or delete provisions of this handbook, or the policies and procedures on which they may be based, at any time without advance notice. For this reason, we urge you to check with your supervisor or the Company's Human Resources Manager, to obtain current information regarding the status of any particular policy, procedure, or practice. No individual other than the President or Vice President of D & B has the authority to enter into any employment or other agreement that modifies Company policy.

This handbook is the property of the Company, and it is intended for your personal use and reference as an employee of the Company. Circulation of this handbook outside of the Company requires the prior written approval of the President or Vice President.

Please sign the acknowledgment form and return it to the Human Resources Department. This will provide the Company a record that you received the handbook.

2. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

It is the policy of the Company to provide equal employment opportunity for all applicants and employees. The Company does not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, pregnancy, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, or marital status. The Company also makes reasonable accommodations for disabled employees and employees' religious beliefs where such accommodations are practicable and without undue hardship to the Company. Finally, the Company prohibits the harassment of any individual on any of the bases listed above. This policy applies to all areas of employment, including recruitment, hiring, training, promotion, compensation, benefits, transfer, and social and recreational programs.

For purposes of this policy, impermissible harassment includes verbal, physical, and visual harassment; solicitation of sexual favors; unwelcome sexual advances; and creating or maintaining an intimidating or hostile work environment which has the purpose or effect of negatively impacting an employee's job performance. Any employee who violates this policy is subject to discipline up to and including discharge.

Any incident of discrimination or harassment, including work-related harassment by Company personnel or any other person, should be reported to the employees' supervisor or the supervisor's manager and the Human Resources Manager. The employee may also report such incidents to the President or Vice President of the Company. The matter will be thoroughly investigated by the appropriate Company representative. In the case of Company employees, if harassment is established, the offender will be disciplined, up to and including discharge. Likewise, if an employee reports an incident of harassment or discrimination in bad faith and with no basis for doing so, that employee will be disciplined.

It is the responsibility of every manager and employee to conscientiously follow this policy.

3. EMPLOYMENT AT WILL

During the course of your employment, you are free to leave the Company at any time for any reason, and the Company reserves a similar right to terminate your employment. Thus, both you and the Company will have the right to terminate your employment at any time, with or without advance notice and with or without cause. This is called "employment at will," and no one other than the President or Vice President of the Company has the authority to alter this arrangement, to enter into an agreement for employment for a specified period of time, or to make any agreement contrary to this policy. Furthermore, any such agreement must be in writing and must be signed by either the President or Vice President of the Company.

4. INTRODUCTORY PERIOD

The Company recruits carefully and believes that it is hiring the best employee for each position. It is, however, to both the Company's and the employee's advantage to have an initial period of employment in which the employee has time to appraise the Company and job content, and the Company has a similar opportunity to appraise the new employee's job performance. Thus, each new employee must satisfactorily complete an introductory period of 90 days, measured from his or her initial date of employment. At the Company's discretion, the introductory period may be extended one or more times.

The Company or the employee may terminate the employment relationship during the introductory period and/or anytime thereafter, with or without cause and with or without prior notice.

At the successful completion of the 90 -day introductory period, the employee becomes a regular employee. The successful completion of the introductory period, however, does not mean that the employee is guaranteed employment for any specific duration, nor does it change the at-will status of regular employment.

5. HOURS OF WORK AND PAYDAY

A. The pay period begins Wednesday morning and continues through the following Tuesday (one week). Paychecks are distributed every Friday by the conclusion of the workday. Employees are responsible for clocking in and out on their "own" time sheet, including lunch breaks. All lunch breaks must be at least 30 minutes long. If an employee has a problem with his/her time sheet or if one is not provided, the employee should contact his/her supervisor immediately.

- I. A W4 tax form must be completed and signed by every employee, including Social Security number, and number of tax exemptions (dependents). The number of exemptions claimed on the W4 form will determine how much money will be withheld from an employee's paycheck each week as required by Federal law. This money is sent to the Internal Revenue Service.
 - II. At the end of each calendar year, you will receive a W-2 tax form reporting the amount earned and the amount of federal income tax and Social Security that was withheld during the previous year. The W-2 tax form is required to complete your tax return for the Internal Revenue Service.
 - III. Full-time employees are those persons employed to work a regular full schedule of 30 or more hours per week. Full-time employees are eligible for all benefits.
 - IV. Part-time employees are those scheduled to work from 16 hours per week to less than 30 hours per week. Part-time employees are not eligible to participate in or receive any medical or dental benefits whatsoever, but are eligible for prorated benefits, which includes four (4) hours per paid holiday and a maximum of 20 hours paid vacation per week of earned vacation time. Any employee who works less than 16 hours per week are not entitled to participate in or receive any benefits whatsoever.
 - V. Any full-time employee who works an average of below 30 hours per week during any calendar quarter shall automatically revert to part-time status and be entitled only to those benefits accorded part-time employees. Conversely, any part-time employee who works an average of 30 hours per week or more during any calendar quarter shall automatically revert to full-time status and be entitled to all those benefits accorded full-time employees.
 - VI. All considerations for wage or salary increases shall be based on individual merit and demonstrated level of performance.
- B. Any eligible employee who, as a result of a medical disability or serious health condition, including pregnancy, becomes unable to perform the duties of his or her position may be eligible for placement on an unpaid medical leave of absence following exhaustion of the employee's paid vacation leave (if applicable) for all or a portion of the period of the employee's disability. The leave extends for the duration of the medical disability, up to a maximum of 12 weeks, measured from the onset of the medical disability, after which employment may be terminated at the discretion of management. Holiday pay will not be paid, during any period of absence on disability leave.
- C. SALARY DEDUCTION POLICY (for salaried exempt employees)
The Company may make deductions from the pay of a salaried employee who is "exempt" from overtime pay for the following reasons:
1. A salaried employee does not have to be paid for any work week in which he or she performs no work;
 2. When the employee absents himself from work for a day or more for personal reasons, other than sickness or accident;

3. When the employee is absent for a day or more due to sickness or disability, if taken in accordance with a bonafide plan, policy or law (i.e. workers' compensation) which otherwise provides said employee with wage replacement benefits;
4. For any hours worked in the initial and final weeks of employment or for hours taken as unpaid FMLA leave;
5. Less than full week deductions for violations of major safety rules;
6. For a full-day disciplinary suspension (for reasons such as sexual harassment or workplace violence). Further, the Company reserves the right to suspend exempt employees without pay for discriminatory harassment for two (2) days, four (4) days or ten (10) days, as appropriate to respond to the level of misconduct.

The Company believes this is a common-sense policy that will allow it to uniformly hold exempt employees to the same standards of conduct as that required of non-exempt, hourly workers.

6. VACATION POLICY

After one (1) year with the company, employees will be entitled to one (1) week of paid vacation. After two (2) years with the company, employees will be entitled to two (2) weeks paid vacation. After five (5) years with the company, employees will be entitled to three (3) weeks paid vacation. After twenty (20) years with the company, employees will be entitled to four (4) weeks paid vacation. For scheduling reasons, it is necessary for the employee to give at least six (6) weeks advance notice before taking a vacation. Employees are required to take their vacation time during the calendar year that they are entitled to the vacation. There will be no "carry over" of vacation time into another calendar year. Your supervisor and either the President or Vice President must approve all vacations. Further, upon termination, an employee will not be entitled to vacation time accumulated as of that date.

Termination of Employment - D & B Tile understands that circumstances change and employees may need to voluntarily resign from employment. If this should occur, employees are encouraged to provide at least two week's notice. The notice period will assist the company in providing time to find a replacement as well as time to assist the employee in the exit process. Therefore, employees who resigned cannot use vacation days during their final weeks after giving notice.

Florida law also does not require employers to pay accrued and unused vacation days upon termination. Therefore, employees that leave the company will not be eligible to receive compensation for unused vacation days.

In some circumstances, it may be necessary for D & B Tile Distributors to adjust the employee's last day of employment to a date sooner than the employee's original end date.

7. HOLIDAYS

The Company provides full-time employees 8 hours and part-time employees 4 hours for the following paid holidays each year after six (6) months of employment:

- New Year's Day
- Memorial Day
- Independence Day
- Labor Day
- Thanksgiving Day
- Christmas Day

An employee will only be paid for a holiday provided he is at work the scheduled work days both before and following that holiday, unless the employee is on scheduled vacation at the time of the holiday. Further, any employee on suspension will not be paid for any holiday(s) that may occur during his/her suspension period.

8. ATTENDANCE

Regular attendance at work is required. If you must be absent for reasons beyond your control (unless the absence is during a company -approved leave of absence), each employee is expected to notify his/her supervisor not less than two (2) hours prior to the beginning of his/her shift. In cases of emergency, notification less than two hours, but prior to the beginning of your shift will be permitted. Failure to notify your supervisor prior to the beginning of your shift will result in an unexcused absence. Falsifying the reason for your absence when notifying your supervisor may result in your immediate discharge. Excessive absenteeism or tardiness will result in disciplinary action and may result in termination. Sick days will be paid at the discretion of management.

Should the Company come into possession of private health information (PHI) as that term is defined in the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) as a result of the application of this Policy, all such PHI shall be utilized only as consistent with the applicable provisions of HIPAA, not disclosed except in accordance therewith, and destroyed after such use. Employees shall execute all necessary releases to effectuate the application of this Policy

9. FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT (FMLA)

The Federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) guarantees employees under certain circumstances, up to twelve (12) weeks of unpaid leave time during any twelve (12) month period. The 12-month period shall be measured forward from the first date leave is used. You may be eligible for an unpaid leave of absence of up to twelve (12) weeks for the following purposes:

1. The birth of a child of the employee. (Eligibility for this leave expires twelve (12) months after the birth and applies equally to men and women);
2. The placement with the employee of a child for adoption or foster care. (Eligibility for this leave expires twelve (12) months after the child is placed with the employee);
3. The care of a child, spouse, or parent of the employee with a serious health problem; or
4. A serious health condition that renders the employee unable to perform any one of the essential functions of the position.

Eligible employees with a spouse, son, daughter, or parent on active duty or call to active duty status in the National Guard or Reserves in support of a contingency operation may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered servicemember during a single 12-month period. A covered service member is a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or reserves, who has a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of duty on active duty that may render the servicemember medically unfit to perform his or her duties for which the service member is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy; or is in outpatient status; or is on the temporary disability retired list.

While you are on FMLA leave, you will be able to retain your medical coverage by paying your usual contributions. At the end of your leave, you will be reinstated to the same or equivalent position unless your job has been eliminated or you are no longer able to perform your job, or unless you are considered a “key” employee. If an extended continuous leave is not needed, you may be eligible for a reduced hour schedule or to take intermittent time off.

Not all employees are eligible for Family and Medical Leave. The FMLA defines eligible employees as employees who have worked for their current employer for at least twelve (12) months and for at least 1250 hours during the twelve (12) months preceding the leave period.

An employee requesting family or medical leave must give at least thirty (30) days advance notice before the leave is to begin by completing and submitting an "Application for Family or Medical Leave" form (which is available from the Human Resources Manager) and by then returning it to the Human Resources Manager. The completed application must state the reason for the leave, the duration of the leave, and the starting and ending dates of the leave, etc. The employee must also complete a HIPPA release form in accordance with Policy. If an employee's leave begins within 30 days, the employee must give notice to the Human Resources Manager as soon as the necessity for the leave arises. The Company requires that an employee first use any paid vacation or other paid leave he/she may be entitled to when taking FMLA leave and this paid leave will run concurrently with any FMLA leave taken.

10. JURY DUTY

D & B Tile provides paid leave up to five (5) days a year for service as a juror in State or Federal Court, provided that no petition to be excused from such service due to hardship has been filed. A copy of the jury summons must be submitted to the Director of Operations as soon as the employee receives it. If the employee is released from jury duty before 1:00 p.m. on any regular work day, the employee is expected to return to work that same day and that day shall not be considered a jury duty leave day. The company reserves the right to withhold from the employee's wages any amount(s) paid to the employee by the State of Federal Government for jury service.

11. MILITARY LEAVE

Employees required to serve in the military shall be entitled to leave and reinstatement in accordance with the requirements of the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act.

12. COMPLAINT REVIEW AND PROBLEM SOLVING

The Management of D & B Tile subscribes to an “open door” policy with respect to problem resolution. All supervisory and management personnel welcome the opportunity to discuss problems with their employees openly in an effort to amicably resolve any work related issues. Management recognizes that occasionally employees may experience dissatisfaction or that misunderstandings may arise. The company encourages a quick and reasonable resolution of any such problems or complaints. If and when issues arise, they should be discussed with the employee’s immediate supervisor. If the problem is not resolved between the employee and the immediate supervisor or, if any employee wishes to bypass a discussion with the supervisor, the problem or dispute should be put in writing and submitted to the Director of Operations and the employee should request a meeting with said Director of Operations to address the issue. Decisions by the Director of Operations on all complaints brought to him will be final.

13. POLICY AGAINST HARASSMENT

The company is committed to providing a workplace free of sexual harassment as well as harassment based on such factors as race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, medical condition, marital status, disability, veteran status, or sexual preference. The Company strongly disapproves of and will not tolerate harassment of employees by managers, supervisors, or co-workers. The Company will also attempt to protect employees from harassment by non-employees in the workplace. Harassment includes verbal, physical, and visual conduct that creates an intimidating, offensive, or hostile working environment or that has the purpose or effect of interfering with work performance. Some examples include racial slurs; ethnic jokes; posting of offensive statements, posters, or cartoons; or other similar conduct. Sexual harassment includes solicitation of sexual favors, unwelcomed sexual advances, or other verbal, visual, or physical conduct of a sexual nature.

You should report any incident of harassment, including work-related harassment by any Company personnel or any other person, promptly to your supervisor, the supervisor’s manager and the Human Resources Manager, who is responsible for having the matter investigated. You may also report incidents to the Company President or Vice President. Managers who receive complaints or who observe harassing conduct should inform the Human Resources Manager immediately. The Company emphasizes that you are not required to complain first to your supervisor if your supervisor is the individual who is harassing you.

Every complaint of harassment that is reported to the foregoing individuals will be investigated thoroughly, promptly, and in as confidential a manner as legally and practically possible. In addition, the Company will not tolerate retaliation against any employee for making a complaint in good faith. As with any other infraction of Company policy, an employee who reports an "incident of harassment" which is false and/or in bad faith may be subject to discipline.

In the case of Company employees, if harassment is established, the Company will discipline the offender. Disciplinary action for a violation of this policy can range from verbal or written warnings up to and including immediate termination, depending upon the circumstances. With regard to acts of harassment by customers or vendors, corrective action will be taken after consultation with the appropriate management personnel.

14. PERSONAL USE OF OFFICE EQUIPMENT AND SUPPLIES

The company's supplies, copy services, postage meter and the like are for the company's business and are not to be used for personal needs. Personal telephone calls during business hours, both incoming and outgoing, should be confined to those that are absolutely necessary and should be kept to a minimum. Employees are required to pay for any personal toll calls.

Employees are not to carry a personal cell phone while on company time. The only exception to this is managers, drivers and sales people that have been issued cell Nextel radio/phones for company business. Managers, drivers and sales people allowed to have a cell/Nextel for business are never to use said phone while in the warehouse for safety reasons. Warehouse personnel are never to have a cell phone while in the warehouse on duty. All personal cell phones are to be left in their vehicles. If an employee is caught with a personal cell phone while on duty, whether it be turned on or off, he/she will be sent home for the day. A second violation of this policy will result in termination.

15. PERSONAL APPEARANCE AND DRESS CODE

The impression you make through your personal appearance and conduct is an integral part of your professional reputation. D & B Tile's reputation will likewise be enhanced by your good judgment in presenting yourself as a professional. We recognize that dress is a matter of personal taste and standards vary throughout the area. However, D & B management requests that employees wear clothing that is appropriate for their position in the company, neat, and that fit properly.

Accessories and grooming are the first details that get noticed and leave a lasting impression on others. Used appropriately, accessories can dramatically alter your image. However, remember that less is usually more. There's no tactful way to address grooming, except to ask employees to pay attention to personal hygiene. Careless grooming can spoil personal style. Body piercing (other than earlobe) and visible tattoos are not considered professional adornments. PLEASE DRESS NEATLY TO REPRESENT THE COMPANY.

Tattoos - No visible tattoos or other body art are permitted in the workplace such as surgically implanted ball bearings, spikes, body branding and the like. Employees who have small, non-offensive tattoos must have them covered by standard clothing. Exceptions will be made for warehouse employees who will not be required to cover small non-offensive tattoos. Offensive tattoos are those whose images can be offensive due to their political belief, religion, race, drug-related, or sexual in nature. All exceptions require the written approval from the directors.

WAREHOUSE DRESS CODE

1. No sneakers
2. No sandals
3. No soft-top shoes (i.e. Hushpuppies or boat shoes)
4. No platform-type shoes
5. No elevated sole or heelsole
6. No shoes with holes cut into the leather

After 6 months of employment, a uniform allowance may be given once per year (at the discretion of the location manager). Each warehouse employee may be eligible to purchase 6 sets of shirts and pants and turn in the receipt for a refund, OR, employees may use D & B's uniform rental service to acquire their uniforms. However, any employee who acquires their uniforms from this rental service must return all uniforms to D & B upon termination of their employment for any reason or reimburse D & B for the actual cost of said uniforms.

16. SMOKING POLICY

The Company is subject to state statutes regarding smoking in the workplace. Accordingly, you are asked to refrain from smoking except in the outside designated "smoking" areas. Since even the non-air-conditioned areas of the warehouse(s) may be considered "workplace" area(s) under Florida law, smoking in the warehouse(s) is not allowed. Smoking will only be allowed outside the buildings. Further, employees who smoke are not entitled to any specific or special smoking breaks.

17. SAFETY PROGRAM

I. Policy

The Company strives to maintain safe working conditions. The success of our safety program depends on the cooperation of everyone. You are asked to learn the safety rules and observe them at all times, and to immediately report any potential safety hazards, injuries or accidents to your supervisor. First aid supplies are conveniently located at various designated areas inside the building. The location of the nearest doctor and/or medical facility is available from the Human Resources Manager or is posted.

II. Workers' Compensation Insurance

The Company carries workers' compensation insurance coverage as required by law to protect employees who are injured on the job. This insurance provides medical, surgical, and hospital treatment in addition to payment for loss of earnings that result from work-related injuries. No compensation shall be allowed for the first seven days of disability, except for medical services and supplies, which are provided from the first day of injury. However, if the injury results in disability for more than 21 days, compensation shall be allowed from the commencement of the disability. The Company has established a workplace safety committee. The committee shall schedule its meetings at least once a month during the calendar year and at such other times as the majority of the committee members agree or the Company requires. The Company shall compensate each committee member at his or her regular hourly wage when the member is engaged in committee activities. The workplace safety committee shall perform the following functions:

- A. Establish and communicate procedures for conducting internal safety inspections of the workplace. With Company approval, these procedures shall be used to evaluate the effectiveness of engineering, administrative, and personal protective control measures provided by the Company to protect employees from recognized hazards in the work and work environment.
- B. Establish and communicate procedures, approved by the Company, by which the employer shall investigate all workplace accidents, safety-related incidents, injuries, illnesses, diseases, and fatalities.
- C. Evaluate the effectiveness of and recommend improvements to the Company's safety rules, policies, and procedures for accident and illness prevention programs in the workplace and, when approved by the Company, ensure that written updates and changes to rules, policies, and procedures of the safety programs are completed. Establish and communicate guidelines for the training of members on the requirements for safety committees.
- D. Establish and communicate guidelines for the safe evacuation of employees from the Company premises in the event of an emergency.
- E. Establish and communicate procedures for the safe handling of mail and packages.

III. Driver's Safety

Policy

D & B Tile considers safety its primary concern. Therefore, the following general Driver's Safety Policy shall be adhered to by all employees of D & B Tile regardless of job description, who are, at any time, driving vehicles owned by D & B or insured under its insurance policy or operating any vehicle within the course and scope of their employment with D & B Tile.

- B. Since safety is a primary concern of D & B Tile, it is the responsibility of each employee to operate D & B Tile vehicles in a defensive manner and obey all traffic laws of the state in which they are traveling.
- C. Regardless of the absence of any state or local laws to the contrary, all operators and passengers of D & B Tile vehicles must wear safety belts.
- D. In the event of an accident, it is the D & B Tile employee's responsibility to notify the police and ensure that a police accident report is completed at the scene regardless of fault. The employee's supervisor shall be notified immediately after police are summoned to the scene and the police accident report completed. A copy of any completed police accident report must be provided to the Legal Department for their files within two weeks of any accident involving a D & B Tile vehicle.
- E. Cellular and mobile phones shall only be operated in a D & B Tile vehicle when it is reasonably safe to do so and when operation of said device will not interfere with the defensive and safe operation of the vehicle by the driver. Operation and use of cellular phones while driving D & B Tile vehicles is not allowed if and when state, local or municipal laws prohibit use of same while operating a motor vehicle.

IV. Safe Forklift Operations

Each warehouse person must be trained and certified in safe forklift operations:

Report any unsafe conditions or injury received while at work, even though very slight; to your supervisor. Your supervisor always welcomes suggestions which will promote safety!

Company Safety Policy is: the SAFE WAY is the RIGHT WAY!!!

- A. Absolutely no alcohol or drugs permitted on the job or the job-site at anytime. (See Section 23(c) – Drug Free Workplace policy)
- B. Report ANY unsafe conditions to your supervisor at once! Do not wait for the other guy to do it; someone may get hurt in the meantime.
- C. All employees MUST WEAR SEATBELTS at all times while operating any company vehicle.
- D. Signs and signals constitute safety rules and must be obeyed.
- E. Do not remove or bypass any guards on any machinery at anytime. Machines are equipped with controls and safety features for your protection.
- F. Ask your supervisor if you need any additional equipment or instruction to get the job done safely.
- G. Do not attempt to lift or push objects that may be too heavy for you. Get assistance with loads over 50 lbs. Learn to lift the right way to avoid strain: Bend your knees, keep your back straight, and push upward with your legs. This is much easier and safer. Wear a back brace at ALL times when lifting.
- H. Any injuries incurred on the job, regardless of their nature or severity must be reported to the supervisor in charge the day that the injury occurs! Note: Any employee who fails to report an injury during the shift in which the injury occurred will be subject to disciplinary action.
- I. Any non-emergency treatment for accidents or injuries must be authorized first by a supervisor.
- J. In the event of a serious injury, the company physician may refer the employee to the insurance company's physician.
- K. The company insures all employees against accidental injuries under the Workman's Compensation Act of the State of Florida.

CLEAN UP OF SPILLED LIQUIDS

Use sand to absorb the spilled liquid, put it in a five-gallon pail and close tightly. Have B.F.I. WASTE SYSTEMS dispose of the sand and material that was absorbed: PHONE NUMBER OF B.F.I. WASTE SYSTEMS 954-523-1227 or 954-577-1092.

SAFETY HABITS

The word safety refers to your freedom from danger, injury and damage, and to your personal security. It's what America was founded on. It's what everyone wants, but doesn't always get. It requires a lot of effort to have and to keep. In recent years there has been a concentrated effort in our country to reduce accidents and save lives. In the process, the word safety has been used so often that many of you may think of it as a "preaching word", or a word that forces you to alter your ways or change bad habits. Instead, when you hear the word safety, think of it as a word that applies to the way you do everything in your life. If you have bad safety habits, you're just not doing things as well as you should! If you are driving safely, you are simply operating your vehicle as intended and obeying the laws. Safety glasses are simply a necessary accessory to the proper use of a tool. If you're working at home, take the time to use a ladder instead of standing on a chair that was made to sit on. Improving your bad safety habits will require concentration and effort, but the results will help make you a responsible and desirable employee, an improved driver, and a good example to those around you. Your bonus for this effort is a reduced chance of becoming an accident statistic. Good safety habits require effort to develop and pay big dividends. Make safety a part of everything you do

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE OSHA HAZARD COMMUNICATION STANDARD (“HAZCOM”)

WHAT IS HAZCOM?

Hazcom says that all employees must be trained about:

1. The hazardous substances they are working with.
2. What they need to do to protect themselves from injury or illness.

WHAT HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES ARE PRESENT ON CONSTRUCTION SITES?

Many COMMON construction products are considered hazardous. Most will fall into five broad hazard categories:

1. Flammables & combustibles
2. Compressed gases
3. Systemic poisons
4. Corrosives and irritants, and
5. Dusts and fires.

HOW DO I KNOW WHICH PRODUCTS I AM USING ARE HAZARDOUS?

All hazardous products must have a label that explains the dangers of the product. These labels will be tagged with such words as “caution”, “warning”, “corrosive”, “danger”, “toxic”, “flammable”, etc. The labels will also tell you the proper way to use the product. Also, each hazardous product has a MATERIAL SAFETY DATA SHEET (“MSDS”) that explains the dangers of the product in more detail. Your employer has a file of MSDS, which are available for you to review.

WHAT DO I NEED TO DO WHEN WORKING WITH HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES?

There are only three ways a hazardous substance can hurt you: if you breathe it, eat it or touch it. When working with these substances, you must always follow the safety rules of your employer and the guidelines outlined on the labels and MSDS. Make sure you wear the necessary protective gear and have adequate ventilation when working with hazardous substances. You should also know what to do in case of an emergency or accident.

WHAT IF I’M JUST WORKING AROUND SOMEONE ELSE WHO IS USING HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES?

Even if you are only near someone who is using hazardous products, you still need to protect yourself. Make sure you have protective gear such as a mask or respirator and make sure there is good ventilation.

HOW DO I KNOW WHAT MY EMPLOYER IS SUPPOSED TO DO UNDER HAZCOM?

Every employer has a written hazard communication program, which outlines his responsibilities under the Hazcom rule. It also has an inventory list of all hazardous products the employer is using. The written program is part of this policy manual.

CHEMICAL FAMILY – METALS AND COMPRESSED GASES

METALS may be found as a solid or a fume if heated. A COMPRESSED GAS is any material under pressure. The pressure may be low or high, depending on the material. A COMPRESSED GAS may be an inert material (Argon, Hydrogen), a solvent, or a metal.

EXAMPLES: Acetylene (welding), Argon (welding), Oxygen (welding), Silver (welding rod)

USES: On a construction site, METALS AND COMPRESSED GASES are used in welding. METALS are used on ductwork, piping and framing.

DANGERS: METAL DUSTS AND FUMES can cause pneumonia like illness, or can be irritating to the skin. SOME METALS are very toxic: BERYLLIUM, CADMIUM, and NICKEL. These are suspected of causing cancer. SPECIAL HANDLING is required for the special metals and their alloys.

COMPRESSED GASES may possess the same toxicity as the material in another physical form or may be more toxic. COMPRESSED GASES are dangerous if released too fast. SOME GASES are flammable. SOME GASES displace oxygen and act as an asphyxiate.

GOGGLES AND RESPIRATOR may be required. SPECIAL VENTILATION is normally required for welding.

STORE COMPRESSED GASES in a cool, dry place – OUT OF THE SUN. METALS have no special storage requirements. STORED METAL DUST must be kept dry and away from ignition source.

SOME GASES MUST BE SEPARATED due to flammability, toxicity or incompatibility. VALVES must be protected. Both FULL AND EMPTY CYLINDERS must be properly marked.

FIRST-AID depends on the metal and its physical form. SOME METALS do not act on the body for several hours after exposure. FIRST-AID FOR COMPRESSED GAS is typically the same as the material in its other forms.

CHEMICAL FAMILY – CORROSIVES

ACID OR ALKALI: A metal that can attack metal and human tissue, such as mucus membrane can be found as a liquid or a solid. Some chemical names may include “ACID” or “HYDROXIDE”.

EXAMPLES:

MURIATIC ACID (masons)
HYDROCHLORIC ACID (wood workers and plumbers)
OZALID ACID (wood workers)
POTASSIUM HYDROXIDE (painters)

USES: CLEAN FINISHES, BLEACHING

DANGERS:

VERY IRRITATING TO THE SKIN AND EYES
CAN CAUSE SEVERE BURNS.
TOXIC VAPORS CAN BE GIVEN OFF WHEN MIXING A CORROSIVE WITH AN INCOMPATIBLE MATERIAL.

HANDLING MAY REQUIRE gloves, apron, goggles, and respirator.

- SPECIAL VENTILATION MAY BE REQUIRED.
- STORAGE: COOL DRY PLACE OUT OF THE SUN.
- SEPARATE ACIDS FROM ALKALIS.

FIRST-AID: WASH CONTACTED AREA FOR 15 MINUTES WITH COLD WATER AND SEEK MEDICAL AID.

CHEMICAL FAMILY – SOLVENTS

DEFINITION: A LIQUID CAPABLE OF DISSOLVING ONE OR MORE MATERIALS WITHOUT UNDERGOING A CHEMICAL REACTION, CAN BE IDENTIFIED BY ITS PAINT-LIKE, SWEET ODOR. SOLVENTS ARE LIQUIDS.

EXAMPLES:

PERCHLOROETHYLENE (Degreaser)
TOLUENE (paint thinner)
DICHLOROETHANE (adhesive)
XYLANES (pains)
METHYLENE CHLORIDE (paint stripper)

USES:

CLEANING OILS, GREASES AND RESINS. FOUND IN PAINT, VARNISH, POLISHES, AND ADHESIVES.

DANGERS:

INHALING THE VAPOR MAY CAUSE LACK OF COORDINATION OR DAMAGE TO THE LIVER, KIDNEYS, OR NERVOUS SYSTEM. SOLVENTS MAY IRRITATE THE SKIN. SOLVENTS MAY BE FLAMMABLE.

HANDLING:

MAY REQUIRE GLOVES, APRON, GOGGLES, RESPIRATOR AND SPECIAL VENTILATION. BE SURE THAT THE PROPER PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT IS USED. THERE IS NO ONE RESPIRATOR THAT CAN BE USED FOR SOLVENTS.

STORAGE:

COOL, DRY PLACE OUT OF THE SUN. SEPARATE CORROSIVES FROM SOLVENTS. MAY REQUIRE SPECIAL VENTILATION AND GROUNDING.

FIRST-AID:

WASH THE CONTACTED AREA FOR 15 MINUTES WITH COLD WATER AND SEEK MEDICAL AID. IF INGESTED OR INHALED, SEEK IMMEDIATE MEDICAL AID.

18. SECURITY; CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

The security of employees, employee property, and Company property is of vital importance to the Company. All employees share responsibility to ensure that proper security is maintained. Any breach of security should be reported promptly to the Human Resources Manager and the President or Vice President of the Company.

Company property includes not only tangible property, like desks and typewriters, but also intangible property such as information. Of particular importance are proprietary information and confidential information. Proprietary information includes all information obtained by Company employees during the course of their work. This Handbook, for example, contains proprietary information. Confidential information is any Company information that is not known generally to the public or the industry. Customer lists, customer files, personnel files, computer records, financial and marketing data, formulas, and trade secrets are examples of confidential information. Employees may not disclose or use proprietary or confidential information except as their jobs require. Anyone who violates this guideline will be subject to discipline and possible legal action.

To provide for the safety and security of employees and the facilities at the Company, only authorized visitors are allowed in the workplace. Restricting unauthorized visitors helps maintain safety standards, protects against theft, ensures security of equipment, protects confidential information, safeguards employee welfare, and avoids potential distractions and disturbances.

All visitors should enter the Company at the lobby. Authorized visitors will receive directions or be escorted to their destination. Employees are responsible for the conduct and safety of their visitors.

If an unauthorized individual is observed on Company premises, employees should immediately notify their supervisor or, if necessary, direct the individual to the lobby.

22. INSPECTIONS AND SEARCHES FOR PROHIBITED MATERIALS AND FOR COMPANY PROPERTY ON COMPANY PREMISES

I. Purpose of the Guideline

The Company believes that maintenance of a workplace that is free of drugs, alcohol, and other harmful materials is vital to the health and safety of its employees and to the success of the Company's business. The Company also intends to protect against the unauthorized removal of Company property and to assure its access at all times to Company property, records, documents, and files. Accordingly, the Company has established this Guideline concerning inspections and searches for prohibited materials and for Company property on Company premises, as well as concerning the monitoring and/or interception of the Company's telephone, facsimile, computer, or email system. - 5) "Possession" means having the substance or property on one's person or otherwise under one's control.

III. Inspections and Searches files, or other items of Company property in your possession when needed in the ordinary conduct of the Company's business, the Company reserves the right to conduct a routine inspection or search at any time for Company property on Company premises.

2. Routine searches or inspections for Company property may include your office, desk, file cabinet, closet, computer file, voice mail, or similar places where you may place Company property or Company-related information, whether or not such places are locked or protected by access codes.

B. Prohibited Materials

1. Inspections or searches for prohibited materials on Company premises will be conducted whenever the Company has reasonable suspicion to believe that an individual may be in possession of such materials in violation of this Guideline.

manner. Your use of the systems constitutes your consent to any monitoring that may occur.

IV. Disciplinary Action

1. If you are found to be in violation of this Guideline and/or in violation of any other guideline set forth herein, you will be subject to discipline up to and including discharge, regardless of the Company's reason for conducting the search or inspection.
2. If you refuse to cooperate with a search or inspection, the Company will take that refusal into consideration in determining appropriate disciplinary action. It is therefore to your advantage to cooperate with the search or inspection.

V. Disposition of Prohibited Materials

1. Any prohibited materials (or any materials that are suspected of being prohibited by this Guideline) that are found in your possession during an inspection or search will be collected by the Company or by the independent security service and will be placed in a container, sealed, and marked with (1) the date collected, (2) names of persons present, (3) circumstances of discovery, and (4) a general description of the contents placed in the container.
2. You will be given a receipt for any materials that were found in your possession (or that the Company suspected of being in your possession).

23. EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE (RESOURCES) PROGRAM

I. Purpose of Guideline

The Company recognizes that personal problems may have a negative impact on your attendance, job performance, or behavior at work. The company also recognizes that everyone may occasionally benefit from professional assistance with personal problems. Accordingly, the Company maintains an Employee Assistance Resources Program, available to all employees, which provides help to employees and their families who suffer from alcohol or drug abuse or have other personal or mental health problems.

23. DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE; DRUG TESTING

I. Purposes

The purposes of this policy are as follows:

- (1) To establish and maintain a safe, healthy working environment for all employees;
- (2) To reduce the incidence of injury to person or property;
- (3) To reduce absenteeism, tardiness, and indifferent job performance; and
- (4) To provide assistance toward outpatient rehabilitation for any employee who seeks the Company's help in overcoming any addiction to, dependence upon, or problem with alcohol or drugs. This policy is established pursuant to the drug-free workplace program under Florida's Workers Compensation law. This law provides that upon implementation of a drug-free workplace program, an employer may require an employee to submit to a test for the presence of drugs or alcohol and, if a drug or alcohol is found to be present in the employee's system at a level prohibited by law, the employee may be terminated and forfeits his or her eligibility for medical and indemnity benefits. All employees are hereby notified that it is a condition of employment for an employee to refrain from reporting to work or working with the presence of drugs or alcohol in his or her body and, if an injured employee refuses to submit to a drug or alcohol test, the employee may forfeit eligibility for medical and indemnity benefits. In addition, an employee may be terminated automatically for refusing to take a drug or alcohol test requested under this policy.

II. Benefits and Employee Cooperation

Those employees with drug and alcohol abuse problems make up only a small fraction of the workforce, and the Company regrets any inconvenience that may be caused to the many non-abusers by the problems of the few. It is believed, however, that the benefits to be derived from the reduction in number of accidents, the greater safety of all employees, and the rehabilitation or termination of those who, because of alcohol or drugs, are a burden on all other employees, will more than make up for any inconvenience or loss the rest of us experience. The Company solicits earnestly the understanding and cooperation of all employees in implementing the policies set forth herein.

III. Understanding This Policy

Due to the requirements of the law, including Florida's Worker's Compensation statute, Chapters 440.101 and 440.102, some of the provisions of this policy are technical in nature. Please do not hesitate to ask your supervisor or the Company's human resource professionals should you have any questions regarding this policy.

2. Both positive and negative test results shall be reviewed and verified by the MRO prior to transmitting the test results to the employer. The MRO, based on a review of the chain of custody form, quality control data, multiple samples, and other pertinent results, is permitted to determine that the result is scientifically unsatisfactory for further action and may request the donor to provide another sample or request a reanalysis of the original sample before making such decision. The MRO is permitted to request that the same laboratory perform the reanalysis or, that an aliquot of the original specimen be sent to another licensed laboratory. The laboratory shall assist in this review process as requested by the MRO and shall make available appropriate personnel to provide consultation as required by the MRO. The MRO shall report all findings based on the unsatisfactory specimen, as required by Fla. Admin Code 59A-24.001, but shall not include any personal identifying information in such reports.

3. The MRO shall evaluate the drug test result(s), which is reported out by the laboratory, to verify by checking the chain of custody form that the specimen was collected, transported, and analyzed under proper procedures, as specified in these rules, and to determine if any alternative medical explanations caused a positive test result. This determination could include conducting a medical interview with the individual, review of the individual's medical history, or the review of any other relevant biomedical factors. The MRO shall review all medical reports made available by the tested individual. The MRO shall not consider the results of samples that are not obtained or processed in accordance with the Fla. Admin. Code § 59A-24.001 et seq.
4. Notify the employee or job applicant of a confirmed positive test result, within three days of receipt of the test result from the laboratory, and inquire as to whether prescriptive or over-the-counter medications could have caused the positive test result. Within five days of notification to the donor of the positive test result the MRO shall provide an opportunity for employee or job applicant to discuss the positive test result and to submit documentation of any prescriptions relevant to the positive test result. The MRO shall review any medical records provided by the employee or job applicant, or authorized by the employee or job applicant and released by the individual's physician, to determine if the positive test result was caused by a legally prescribed medication. If the donor does not have prescribed medication, the MRO shall inquire about over-the-counter medications that could have caused the positive test result. The donor shall be responsible for providing all necessary documentation (i.e., a doctor's report, signed prescription, etc.) within the five-day period after notification of the positive test result.
5. Contacting Donors Who Test Positive. If the MRO is unable to contact a donor who tested positive within three working days of receipt of the test results from the laboratory, the MRO shall contact the employer and request that the employer direct the donor to contact the MRO as soon as possible. If the MRO has not been contacted by the donor within two working days from the request to the employer, the MRO shall verify the report as positive. As a safeguard to employees and job applicants, once an MRO verifies a positive test result, the MRO may change the verification of the result if the donor presents information to the MRO which documents that a serious illness, injury, or other circumstance unavoidably prevented the employee from contacting the MRO within the specified timeframe and if the donor presents information concerning a legitimate explanation for the positive test result. If the donor declines to talk with the MRO regarding a positive test result, the MRO shall validate the result as positive and annotate such decline in the remarks section.
6. Identification of Donor prior to providing an employee or job applicant with the opportunity to discuss a test result, the MRO shall confirm the identity of the employee or job applicant. At a minimum, to confirm the identity of the donor, the MRO shall ask the donor to respond with the following information:

If the request is over the phone, the MRO shall request:

- A. An employee identification number or social security number;
- B. Date of birth
- C. Employer's name; and
- D. Work telephone number.

Information for Donor once the donor's identification has been established, and before any additional information is solicited from the donor, the MRO shall:

- i. Inform the donor that the MRO is an agent of the employer whose responsibility is to make a determination on test results and report them to the employer;
 - ii. Inform the donor that medical information revealed during the MRO's inquiry will be kept confidential; unless the donor is in a safety sensitive or special risk position and the MRO believes that such information is relevant to the safety of the donor or to the other employees.
 - iii. Any additional release of information shall be solely pursuant to a written consent form signed voluntarily by the donor, except where such release is compelled by a hearing officer or a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to an appeal, or where deemed appropriate by a professional or occupational licensing board in a related disciplinary proceeding.
 - iv. Outline the rights and procedures for a retest of the original specimen by the donor.
 - v. If the donor voluntarily admits to the use of the drug in question without a proper prescription, the MRO shall advise the donor that a verified positive test report will be sent to the employer.
7. After the MRO reviews the laboratory and the collection site documents and, in the case of positive test result, has contacted the donor who tested positive, the MRO shall prepare and sign a verification letter to the employer revealing the final verified test result, either negative, positive, or unsatisfactory, no more than seven working days after the specimen was received by the laboratory, and appropriately file the chain of custody form under confidential procedures for two years. If the MRO determined that there is a legitimate medical explanation for the positive test result, based on the medical judgment of the MRO and accepted standards of practice, the MRO shall report a negative test result to the employer.
 8. The MRO shall process any employee or job applicant requests for a retest of the original specimen, within 180 days of notice of the positive test result at another licensed laboratory selected by the employee or job applicant. If no workplace injury has occurred, the person must challenge the test result in a court of competent jurisdiction. When an employee undertakes a challenge to the results of a test, it shall be the employee's responsibility to notify the laboratory and the sample shall be retained by the laboratory until the case is settled.
 8. If testing is conducted based on reasonable suspicion, the Company shall promptly detail in writing the circumstances that formed the basis of the determination that reasonable suspicion existed to warrant the testing. A copy of this documentation shall be given to the employee upon request and the original documentation shall be kept confidentially by the Company and retained for at least one year.
 9. During the 180-day period after written notification of a positive test result, the employee or job applicant who has provided the specimen shall be permitted by the Company to have a portion of the specimen retested, at the employee's or job applicant's expense. Such retesting shall be done at another laboratory, licensed or approved by the Agency for Health Care Administration, chosen by the employee or job applicant. The second laboratory must test at equal or greater sensitivity for the drug in question as the first laboratory. The first laboratory that performed the test for the Company is responsible for the transfer of the portion of the specimen to be retested, and for the integrity of the specimen and for the chain of custody during such transfer.

26. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Our employees are expected to devote their best efforts and attention to the full-time performance of their jobs. Employees are expected to use good judgment, to adhere to high ethical standards, and to avoid situations that create an actual or potential conflict between the employee's personal interests and the interests of the Company. A Conflict of interest exists when the employee's loyalties or actions are divided between the Company's interests and those of another, such as a competitor, supplier, or customer. Both the fact and the appearance of a conflict of interest must be avoided. Employees unsure whether a certain transaction, activity, or relationship constitutes a conflict of interest should discuss it with their immediate supervisor or the Human Resources Manager for clarification. Any exceptions to this guideline must be approved in writing by the General Manager of Company.

This guideline does not attempt to describe all possible conflicts of interest that could develop. Some of the more common conflicts from which employees should refrain, however, include the following:

1. Accepting personal gifts (not including nominal "tips" from customers), money, "kickbacks", entertainment or other compensation from competitors, customers, suppliers, or potential suppliers;
2. Working for a competitor, supplier, or customer;
3. Engaging in self-employment in competition with the Company;
4. Using proprietary or confidential Company information for personal gain or to the Company's detriment;
5. Having a direct or indirect financial interest in or relationship with a competitor, customer, or supplier, except that ownership of less than one percent (1%) of the publicly traded stock of a corporation will not be considered a conflict;
6. Using Company assets or labor for personal use;
7. Acquiring any interest in property or assets of any kind for the purpose of selling or leasing it to the Company.
8. Committing the Company to give its financial or other support to any outside activity or organization; or
9. Developing a personal relationship with a subordinate employee of the Company that might interfere with the exercise of impartial judgment in decisions affecting the Company or any employees of the Company.

If an employee or someone with whom an employee has a close relationship (a family member or close companion) has a financial or employment relationship with a competitor, customer, supplier, or potential supplier, the employee must disclose this fact in writing to the Personnel Department. Employees should be aware that if they enter into a personal relationship with a subordinate employee or with an employee of a competitor, supplier, or customer, a conflict of interest may develop that requires full disclosures to the Company.

An employee may engage in outside employment, provided that he or she discloses this fact to his or her immediate supervisor and obtains the supervisor's written approval, so long as such outside employment does not violate the terms of this Policy.

Failure to adhere to this guideline, including failure to disclose any conflicts or to seek an exception, will result in discipline, up to and including termination of employment.
